

2018-2019 Bible Study Schedule

September 9—October 14

Sing!

God created His People to sing His praises. Lutherans hold the heritage of being a (congregational) singing church. Our time together will demonstrate and deepen our understanding and commitment to the blessings of singing our faith. And we plan on doing a little bit of it along the way. Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Psalm 95:1

October 28—December 16

8 Weeks in the Psalms

The Holy Spirit inspired the writers of the psalms to write about many of the issues that we face in our lives: anger and happiness, sadness and joy, doubt and trust, and many more. As we spend 8 weeks in this special book of the Bible, we will look at some of the different types of psalms, and we will see that these ancient words are still very much applicable to us today.

January 6—March 17

Luke's Account of the Life of Jesus

Each year the story of Jesus is retold through our Gospel Lessons. Beginning this December, we will read primarily from Luke's account, but we won't be able to read everything. In our Bible Study, we'll consider portions of Luke's Gospel that aren't included in our worship services as well as the events and stories that only the Gospel writer Luke tells us of.

March 24—May 19

Defending the Faith:
A Crash Course in Apologetics

St. Peter wrote: Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have (I Pet. 3:15). God gives us many opportunities to defend our faith against those who challenge it, and apologetics is that defense of the gospel. But, our defense of the gospel can also be an opportunity to lead people to Jesus. This crash course in apologetics will give us the chance to practice defending our faith with the goal of leading people to see Jesus.
